

HERO'S LOVE FOR CLAUDIO

What have my lord has brought to me, my love?
'Tis love at first sight, or foolishness sight?
O' Claudio, O' Claudio, above,
Hath sent so suddenly without thy might.

Have I betrayed you with such art hath lies?
I have been through much terrible faint pain
For reasons not true that hath made all cries,
But 'tis thy love that I have will remain.

When our eyes first met it have made me weak
But now our dreams are like a fairy tale
Without a happy ending I must keep
But 'twas the ending, my love will not fail.

I, Hero, will love thee through lasting time
Ye hand in marriage have made you all mine!
